

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. The partisanship evident in this decision is unprecedented and violates federal law requiring media using free public airways to serve the public interest. After viewing an interview with Sinclair's CEO and reading several news stories, I became even more convinced that airing this "documentary" is aimed at swaying the opinions of undecided voters in the critical states.

If Sinclair goes ahead with this misuse of media resources, I will personally boycott their member stations and those who advertise with them. I will also protest any license renewal for this conglomerate. Please sanction the Sinclair Broadcasting Group for their heinous violation of their obligation to serve the public. Thank you.
